

Nomination of a new affiliate at Riocap's new Paris office - April 24, 2013

The partners at Riocap Advisory Group Inc., a boutique M&A firm based out of Montreal are pleased to announce that Alain Lombard has joined the Riocap team. Alain Lombard will be operating from Paris and assisting the firm's European clients wishing to consider acquisitions, joint ventures and partnerships in Quebec and the rest of Canada, as well as helping Canadian entrepreneurs to deploy in France and the rest of Europe. We welcome Alain Lombard and wish him much success.

Alain Lombard is a seasoned French executive with 20 years work experience as General Manager, Europe for several US and Canadian companies. Mr. Lombard holds an MBA with honors from Boston University, and has worked several years for IBM European Headquarters as Senior Financial Analyst. He then started a market development company based in Boston, Massachusetts where he spent several years. He then moved back to Europe to head a major US company as Vice President Europe prior to joining Riocap as Business Development Director in France. He can be reached by email at alombard@riocap.ca
